

Congratulations on Your New Lab!

Free Gift with over
$350 Value!

Enjoy a complimentary new lab start-up kit from Corning Life Sciences.

Set up your new lab with brands you know and trust. As our gift to you, we will provide a complimentary box of lab supplies including packs of Corning® plasticware and media, as well as Falcon®, PYREX®, and Axygen® samples. In addition to the contents of your gift package, Corning Life Sciences offers an expansive range of products for all of your needs – from Cell Culture to Genomics and everything in between!

Corning Family of Brands

All Corning brands offer consistent, reliable, and repeatable results – giving you the confidence that you can only get with Corning's 100 years of expertise in life science product development and manufacturing.

Cell Culture – Vessels, Surfaces, and Media

With the integration of the BD Discovery Labware business, Corning has a more expansive plastic consumable labware offering than ever before – now including Falcon products for liquid handling and cell culture, as well as Corning's advanced surfaces, biologically coated plastic consumable labware, cell culture reagents, media, water, and ADME research products and services.

Corning's expanded offering of brands and products gives you a broad range of innovative vessels, surfaces, media, reagents, and benchtop equipment solutions to meet your specific application needs.

Axygen® Tips and Molecular Biology Products

Through continuous new product innovation, Axygen brand products bring new standards to sample handling, delivery, and storage – improving the way research is done in the laboratory today. Axygen products include a complete range of disposable tips from manual through to automation, as well as a range of high throughput screening microplates and PCR storage products. The Axygen brand also features PCR storage products and benchtop equipment, such as thermal cyclers and centrifuges.
