

MassBio

MASSACHUSETTS BIOTECHNOLOGY COUNCIL

The Ethics of the Commercialization of CRISPR

Tuesday August 1, 2017

The Ethics of the Commercialization of CRISPR

Speakers:

- George M. Church, PhD, Professor of Genetics, Health Sciences & Technology of Harvard & MIT (HST), Director of HMS NHGRI-Center of Excellence in Genomic Science, Director of the Personal Genome Project, Broad Institute & Wyss Harvard Inst. of Biologically Inspired Engineering
- Sheldon Krimsky, PhD, Lenore Stern Professor of Humanities & Social Sciences in the Department of Urban & Environmental Policy & Planning in the School of Arts & Sciences and Adjunct Professor in Public Health and Community Medicine in the School of Medicine, Tufts University
- Bill Lundberg, MD, MBA, Chief Scientific Officer, CRISPR Therapeutics

Moderator:

- Antonio Regalado, Senior Editor, Biomedicine, MIT Technology Review